

Court IDVA Service: Do you need support at Criminal or Civil Court?

A Court IDVA (Independent Domestic Violence Advisor) can support you throughout the whole court process by:

- Explaining the Criminal and Civil justice system to give you understanding at every stage
- Offering one to one support including being with you in court. Arranging safe entry into the court building and a separate waiting room for you
- Arranging a pre-trial visit and helping with Special Measures (TV links or screen)
- Liaising with Police Witness Care Unit and other services on your behalf
- Providing guidance about protective court orders such as non-molestation/occupation orders or child contact issues

Unsure of your options? We can help.

Reducing the Risk of Domestic Abuse

Contact Nikkie on:
07743 242211

Email:
courtidva@reducingtherisk.org.uk

Confidential CJSM email:
courtidva@reducingtherisk.cjsm.net

Reducing the Risk of Domestic Abuse is a local charity providing independent, free and confidential support for victims and survivors of domestic abuse in Oxfordshire.

For more information please go to www.reducingtherisk.org.uk

Registered Charity No. 1120244